

COLLEGE OF HEALTH AND BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES

Full name with degree: Karin C. Gladney,
Ph.D., CAADC

Rank: Visiting Lecturer II

Position: CADC Coordinator

Department: Psychology

University Email address:
karingladney@desu.edu

Work Phone: (302) 857-6131

Country of Origin: United States

Education:

- Ph.D. 2018 General Human Services, Harold Abel School of Social and Behavioral Sciences
Capella University, Minneapolis, MN
Dissertation: "Race-Related Stress and Coping Among African American Male Baby Boomers: An Empirical Study"
- M.H.S. 1999 Human Services, Lincoln University, Lincoln University, PA.
Master's Thesis: "Implementing a Comprehensive Relapse Prevention Program for Dual-Diagnosed Individuals"

Certifications:

- Certified Advanced Alcohol and Drug Counselor (CAADC), Delaware Certification Board #1712
- Alcohol and Drug Counseling Certificate, Villanova University, Villanova, PA

Publications:

Gladney, K. C. (2018). Race-related stress and coping among African American male baby boomers: An empirical study (Order No. 10841589). Available from ProQuest
Dissertations & Theses Global. (2090066671).

Awards:

- 2018 Education Impact Award, Camden County College
- 2013 Adjunct Faculty Teaching Excellence Award, Camden County College

Professional Organizations and Memberships:

- Delaware Opioid Crisis Response Team (CRT)
- YWCA Dialogue to Action: Conversations about Racism, Facilitator
- Pi Gamma Mu Pennsylvania Alpha Lambda Chapter
- American Federation of Teachers (AFT Retirees At-Large)